ELECTRIC CAR LINE!

one of the Probabilities in the Near Future for Durham.

To Run from East Durham to the Erwin Cotton Mills.

WILL USE ELEGANT PULLMAN CARS

People Who Come and Go—Brief Brevities of Interest to All Readers of The Globe.

THE GLOBE is in position to announce that one of the probabilities of the near future for Durham is an electric street car line, reaching from the Durham cotton mills, in East Durham, to the Erwin cotton mills, in West Durham.

The proposition is that nice Pullman coaches shall whirl through Durham every ten minutes.

The route will pass through the Trinity college grounds (if consent can be obtained), through the West End Land company to the Erwin mills.

This is a big move forward for Durham, and taken in connection with the fact that just now we are to have the handsomest and best hotel in the state, you may count Durham a hummer with horns.

—It is reported here to day that Mr. Joe Harris, of Hillsboro, editor of the Orange County Observer, is critically ill.

—The Leary house—one of the prettiest and best appointed in the city—is to be sold. It is on Cleveland street—and those who go and look through it will be captivated. It is roomy and substantial—and the man who buys it will get a bargain. See C. C. Taylor or A. E. Lloyd and they will show you the bargain with pleasure.

—J. J. Rogers, the fruit dealer, has just made a notable addition to his establishment in the form of a steam peanut roaster, which he claims is the only one of the kind in Durham. It turns out a half bushel at a roasting and does the business the queen's taste. When you want fresh parched peanuts, or fruits of any kind, call on Mr. Rogers, next to the postoffice.

COMING AND GOING.

Durham People on the Move and Visitors in the City.

Mr. J. B. Puryear, of Eagle Rock, is spending a few days in the city, visiting his brother, Mr. Lee Puryear, and meeting other Durham friends of whom there are many.

The young man who gave us the names of Mrs. Hammatt's guests made a mistake. They are Miss Bessie Alston, Raleigh; Miss Mary W. Thorne, Panama Springs; Misses Mary, Lou and Carrie Thomas, of Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ellison and daughter, and Mrs. Fannie Hunt, of Waynesville, Va., Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ellison, of Crockett, Va., and Mr. Charles E. Ellison, of Richmond, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Gattis.

A FAMILY RE-UNION.

They Sit at the Same Board for the First Time in Thirty-three Years.

To-morrow being the birthday of Mrs. J. R. Gattis, the scattered members of her family and only surviving relatives, have arranged for a happy family reunion, it being the first time they have all sat at the same table and gathered around a common fireside since Mrs. Gattis' marriage, 33 years ago.

There will be present to-morrow, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Ellison and daughter, and Mrs. Fannie Hunt, of Waynesville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ellison, of Crockett, Va., and Mr. Charles E. Ellison, of Richmond—brothers and sister of Mrs. Gattis, there being now but five members living out of a family of ten.

Mr. W. A. Gattis, of Raleigh, and Rev. T. J. Gattis, of this city, will make the circle complete, and the occasion must of necessity be a most enjoyable one.

"I've used Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family for a long while, and wouldn't be without it. I know it's a good medicine. John Harrison, postmaster, Guyton, Edgingham Co., Ga."

BEAST BUTLER DEAD!

Another Great General at Last Renders.

The Hero of New Orleans Will Long Be Remembered.

HE WAS NOT LOVED IN THE SOUTH

Marriage Bells Continue to Ring in Durham and Colonel Cupid Is a Winner.

RALEIGH, Jan. 11.—[Special]—Ben Butler died this morning at 1 o'clock, at his Massachusetts home.

General Butler's war record is still fresh in the minds of southern people, by whom he was not loved. His outrages at New Orleans earned for him the suggestive sobriquet of "Beast Butler," a name which has stuck to him through all the years that have past, and will continue to live after him.

By the North he was considered a great general and will be mourned as such.

KENNA DIES.

The West Virginia Senator Is Now No More.

Senator Kenna, of West Virginia, whose illness has been noticed by the press, passed away this morning.

MARRIAGES TO-DAY.

Two Couples Unite Their Hearts and Fortunes.

A pretty marriage took place at the First Baptist church this morning.

Mr. James V. McLenon led to the altar Miss Sallie F. Hardee, Rev. Mr. Tyree officiating.

Miss Mattie Carlton acted as maid of honor, and Mr. V. T. Lambe as best man.

The ushers were Messrs. W. H. Riddick, J. F. Cothran, W. W. Cheek and E. C. Matthews.

The young people are both of Durham, and their many friends wish for them all possible happiness.

Another.

The marriage of Policeman Horace J. Brown and Miss Nellie Campbell will take place to night at the residence of the bride's father.

Good evening! Have you used—Ah, there is no need of my saying anything further, I am sure you will hereafter use nothing but the Famous Bush of Roses for your complexion. Yours with best wishes,
FLORA A. JONES,
South Bend, Ind.

NEW BERNE AS A FISH MARKET.

It Is the Best Market Under the Sun for Getting Fine Fish.

There were 33 cart loads of New river trout in the market yesterday. The number of fish was about 5,500 the average weight about 3 pounds. They sold from 15 to 22 cents apiece wholesale.

Mr. Wm. P. Guthrie of Morehead made a rich strike on catching trout last Friday. He caught $198 worth at on-haul. This is very good, but not up to that of Capt. Ben Barker who a few weeks ago caught in Neuse river below New Berne at one haul over $500 worth. It will be remembered that he sold half his catch here for $209 and shipped the rest.
